KNOW YOUR SHIRE
Local Laws

Parking and Parking Facilities Local Law

DID YOU KNOW?

Angle Parking (Section 3.4)
When a sign says 'angle parking', there's actually a number attached to it. Unless the sign or road markings indicate otherwise, vehicles are to be parked at approximately 45 degrees to the centre of the carriageway.

The Street Isn't a Car Yard (Section 3.9a)
Thinking of parking your car on the street with a big FOR SALE sign?
Under the Local Law, you can't park a vehicle on a thoroughfare for the purpose of exposing it for sale. Facebook Marketplace might be the better option.

Roadside Repairs (Section 3.9d)
Broken down? There's an important distinction between getting going again and setting up a roadside workshop. A vehicle can't be parked on a thoroughfare for repairs, except for the minimum repairs necessary to get the vehicle moved somewhere else.

The Red Letterbox (Section 5.3)
Generally, vehicles shouldn't stop within 3 metres of a public letter box, although there are exceptions including when you're dropping off or picking up passengers or mail.

Fire Hydrants (Section 6.6)
See a fire hydrant, fire plug, or a marker showing where one is located? Keep your vehicle at least 1 metre away when parking. That space can make a big difference when emergency access is needed.

Please note that these notes are intended as a summary of selected provisions of the Local Law and should not be relied upon as a substitute for the full document. For complete information and context, please refer to the Local Law in its entirety.

August is Rural Road Safety Month

In 2025, 906 Australians were killed on our rural roads. That's 906 families receiving the worst phone call imaginable. 906 stories interrupted before their final destination was ever reached. Don't be the reason someone never arrives at their destination. Choose road safety. Slow down, stay alert, and make sure every journey ends safely.

Think differently about the journeys you take - because no holiday, weekend away or drive home is worth risking a life.
