NAIDOC BBQ

What a great turnout we had at the NAIDOC Week BBQ lunch. It was great to see the community come together.

A huge thank you to our local Police Officer's and volunteers for all their hard work and dedication.

Exhibition Hall

CAPITAL PROJECTS UPDATE

Bush Fire Sheds

The construction of the sheds is progressing very well with the structures complete at all three sites. The internal fitouts are currently being completed with works expected to be completed by August/September 2021.

Exhibition Hall – Royal Ag Show Funding.

The Exhibition Hall Construction is 95% complete with the final trimmings and some minor corrections taking place over the next week.

A massive shout out to the Sport and Recreation members who have attended two busy bees to have the gyprock removed off the hallway wall and install the gyprock to the exhibition hall side wall. This work has expedited the construction process to ensure that we have the entire process completed by the end of August.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTIONS

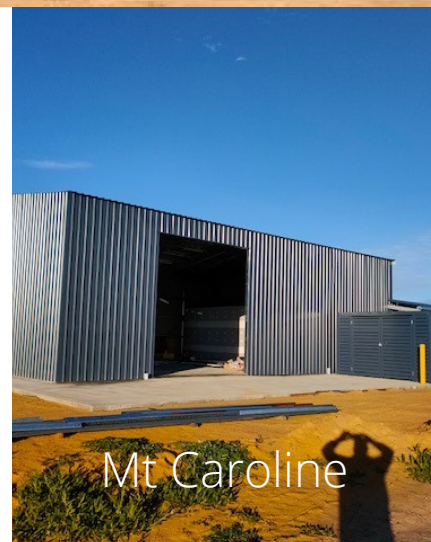

Local government elections are held every two years, with the next Election being held on Saturday 16th October 2021. Nominations open on Thursday 2nd September and close at 4pm on Thursday 9th September.

The Shire of Kellerberrin will have three (3) vacancies, each for a 4-year term this Election. Further information on Council Elections is available from CEO Raymond Griffiths.

Prospective candidates are encouraged to regularly check the DLGSC website for updates about induction requirements and other matters related to the local elections.

Anyone intending to nominate for the Election is encouraged to access the Department Website at <http://www.dlgsc.wa.gov.au/local-government> for further information on the role of a Councillor and the compulsory Induction Course.

The Course gives community members a basic understanding of what is required of a Council Member before nominations open in early September.
